FOOD INSECURITY AND STUDENTS' ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Dr. James Crawford

Superintendent, Bremerton School District

Dr. Crawford earned his undergraduate degree from Washington State University, his Master's degree from the University of Washington, and his Doctor of Education from Washington State University, where his dissertation was named Dissertation of the Year by the Washington Educational Research Association. Dr. Crawford has also earned the distinguished award of National Emerging Leader in Education from the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development.

SEEING THE IMPACT FROM BOTH SIDES

John Wainscott

Facilities & Transportation Manager, Bremerton Foodline

Overcoming homelessness and addiction is a chapter but not a defining factor for John. As an impactful employee of the Bremerton Foodline, John brings an empathetic approach to client services and giving to his community.

PAINTING THE VISION FOR TOMORROW

Cori Kauk

Executive Director, Bremerton Foodline

With a Master's degree in Nonprofit Leadership and a Fundraising Certificate from Seattle University, Cori has dedicated her life to serving people in need. She is driven to think creatively to decrease barriers and develop services, programs, and spaces that are dignified and gracious. Through collaboration, we can do so much more.

THE IMPACT

Jamie Callahan

Board Chair member of the Bremerton Foodline since 2016

As a veteran's spouse, she has experienced deployments and other challenges that military families face. She is a passionate community member, always looking at ways to improve the community where she lives.
